Official Journal of the American Psychiatric Association

Instructions for Activating Your Online Subscription

All subscribers to the print edition of The American Journal of Psychiatry are automatically eligible to view the Journal online. The online version of the Journal allows you to conduct searches for topics of interest in issues going all the way back to 1844. Plus the only way readers can participate in the Journal's new CME Course program is to have an activated online subscription (note: there is an additional annual fee to be enrolled and eligible to receive up to 36 hours of category 1 CME credit).

To activate your online subscription:

Make sure you have your customer identification number available. This number is printed on your Journal mailing label, directly above your name and address. If you cannot locate this number, please contact American Psychiatric Publishing, Inc., through one of the following methods:

- e-mail: accessnumber@psych.org
- phone: (800) 368-5777
- fax: (703) 907-1091
- mail:

American Psychiatric Publishing, Inc.
1000 Wilson Blvd., Suite 1825
Arlington, VA 22209-3901
Attn: Circulation Department.

Internet: <http://www.psychiatryonline.org>. Click on the "Subscriptions" button located near the bottom of the page. Then click on the appropriate link:

- ACTIVATE Your Member or Individual (Nonmember) Subscription

For APA Members, you will find your member number on the mailing label above your name. It is a 10-digit number beginning with zeros. Enter your number in the box and click the SUBMIT button.

For Individual Nonmembers and Institutions, your customer number is on the mailing label above your name. It is a 10-digit number beginning with 22 or 30. Enter this number in the box and click the SUBMIT button.

Fill out all the information on the next screen and press the "Send Form" button at the bottom on the right.

When finished, click the "Done" button. You will receive an e-mail confirmation that your subscription has been activated.

Continuing Medical Education: You now have an opportunity to earn CME credits by reading articles in The American Journal of Psychiatry. Three articles in each issue will each comprise a short course for up to 1 hour category 1 CME credit each. The course comprises reading the article and answering three multiple-choice questions with a single correct answer. CME Credit is issued only online. Readers who want credit must subscribe to the AJP Continuing Medical Education Course program (APA Members: $97.00 per year; Nonmember subscribers: $144.00 per year; nonmember nonsubscribers: $180.00 per year). Go to cme.psychiatryonline.org, select The American Journal of Psychiatry at that site, take the course(s) of your choosing, complete the evaluation form, and submit your answers for CME credit. In the online course, correct answers will be highlighted for your reference; there is no minimum threshold score necessary for the credit. A link from the question to the correct answer in context will be highlighted in the associated article. A certificate for each course will be generated upon successful completion.

The American Journal of Psychiatry is online at ajp.psychiatryonline.org

For free listing of your organization's official annual or regional meeting, please send us the following information: sponsor, location, inclusive dates, type and number of continuing education credits (if available), and the name, address, and telephone number of the person or group to contact for more information. In order for an event to appear in our listing, all notices and changes must be received at least 6 months in advance of the meeting and should be addressed to:

Calendar, American Journal of Psychiatry, 1000 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 1825, Arlington, VA 22209-3901, jblair@psych.org (e-mail).

Because of space limitations, only listings of meetings of the greatest interest to Journal readers will be included.

New Feature for Residents!

The American Journal of Psychiatry Residents' Journal

A FREE electronic publication produced specifically for psychiatry residents

The Residents' Journal contains special links to full text of the articles from the current American Journal of Psychiatry and to AJP Audio, a downloadable MP3 file featuring highlights from the issue. In addition, this e-mail bulletin contains two exclusive features:

Journal Club Kit

A featured article presented with an overview discussing the reasons for its selection, discussion questions, and an editorial by a senior member of the field placing the article into clinical context.

Educational Article

Case presentation that illustrates a major point in clinical practice or highlights unique treatment approaches.

Plus lively contributions from your fellow residents:

- Instructive cases
- Unique clinical or educational programs
- Perspectives on training and career development
- Discussions arising from journal club discussions

The Resident's Journal is sent free-of-charge to all psychiatry residents. Anyone interested in being included on the distribution list should contact Lisa Devine, the Residents' Journal staff editor at ajp@psych.org with "Subscribe to Residents' Journal" in the subject line.

Cover

Research on maternal depression is reviewed in this issue in an editorial by Yonkers (p. 1457). A study by Dietz et al. (p. 1515) of HMO medical records for 4,400 women found that more than half of women with postpartum depression had been depressed before or during pregnancy. Fewer depressed women took antidepressants during pregnancy and the proportion of those receiving psychosocial treatment did not rise. Cover design by Jason Glance.
