New Feature for Residents!

The American Journal of Psychiatry Residents' Journal

A FREE electronic publication produced specifically for psychiatry residents

The Residents' Journal contains special links to full text of the articles from the current American Journal of Psychiatry and to AJP Audio, a downloadable MP3 file featuring highlights from the issue. In addition, this e-mail bulletin contains two exclusive features:

Journal Club Kit

A featured article presented with an overview discussing the reasons for its selection, discussion questions, and an editorial by a senior member of the field placing the article into clinical context.

Educational Article

Case presentation that illustrates a major point in clinical practice or highlights unique treatment approaches.

Plus lively contributions from your fellow residents:

- Instructive cases
- Unique clinical or educational programs
- Perspectives on training and career development
- Discussions arising from journal club discussions

The Resident's Journal is sent free-of-charge to all psychiatry residents. Anyone interested in being included on the distribution list should contact Lisa Devine, the Residents' Journal staff editor at ajp@psych.org with "Subscribe to Residents' Journal" in the subject line.

For free listing of your organization's official annual or regional meeting, please send us the following information: sponsor, location, inclusive dates, type and number of continuing education credits (if available), and the name, address, and telephone number of the person or group to contact for more information. In order for an event to appear in our listing, all notices and changes must be received at least 6 months in advance of the meeting and should be addressed to:

Calendar, American Journal of Psychiatry, 1000 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 1825, Arlington, VA 22209-3901, jblair@psych.org (e-mail).

Because of space limitations, only listings of meetings of the greatest interest to Journal readers will be included.
