get CME from AJP

Brief companion exams are created for three of the most influential articles from each issue. By reading the articles and completing the online exams, you can test your knowledge and earn up to 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ per article. Correct answers are highlighted for your reference upon completion of the course; there is no minimum threshold score necessary for the credit. A link from the question to the correct answer in context will also be highlighted in the associated article, thus extending the learning experience.

CME credit is only provided online, and a subscription to the AJP CME program is required. From the moment you subscribe to the AJP CME program, you will be able to select from 72 courses from among 40 possible subject areas. You'll also be able to access the next 33 courses as they become available. For more information and pricing, please go to <http://cme.psychiatryonline.org/misc/aboutajpcme.shtml>

This activity is sponsored by the American Psychiatric Association. The American Psychiatric Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The American Psychiatric Association designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Fulfill your CME requirement while staying current on the latest advances in psychiatry.

Continuing Medical Education

Three articles in this issue form the basis of a short course with questions that can be answered for up to 1 hour of category 1 CME credit each by visiting <http://cme.psychiatryonline.org/> and clicking on “American Journal of Psychiatry CME.”

CME credit is issued only online, and a paid subscription to the AJP CME course program is required.

This month's courses appear on pages 739–742.

FREE AUDIO!

Have You Heard?

You can listen to highlights of The American Journal of Psychiatry by downloading a monthly free .mp3 audio file from our web site (<http://ajp.psychiatryonline.org/misc/audio.dtl>) or by subscribing to the AJP Audio podcast at iTunes or other feed reader (e.g., NewzCrawler, FeedDemon, Bloglines, Google Reader). Presented by Deputy Editor Dr. Susan Schultz or by Editorial Director Michael Roy, each month's audio lasts approximately 30 minutes and covers several research articles, the Treatment in Psychiatry feature, and one or two editorials.

New Feature for Residents!

The American Journal of Psychiatry Residents' Journal

A FREE electronic publication produced specifically for psychiatry residents

The Residents' Journal contains special links to full text of the articles from the current American Journal of Psychiatry and to AJP Audio, a downloadable MP3 file featuring highlights from the issue. In addition, this e-mail bulletin contains two exclusive features:

Journal Club Kit

A featured article presented with an overview discussing the reasons for its selection, discussion questions, and an editorial by a senior member of the field placing the article into clinical context.

Educational Article

Case presentation that illustrates a major point in clinical practice or highlights unique treatment approaches.

Plus lively contributions from your fellow residents:

- Instructive cases
- Unique clinical or educational programs
- Perspectives on training and career development
- Discussions arising from journal club discussions

The Residents' Journal is sent free-of-charge to all psychiatry residents. Anyone interested in being included on the distribution list should contact Angela Moore, the Residents' Journal staff editor at ajp@psych.org with "Subscribe to Residents' Journal" in the subject line.
