SNEAK A PEEK INTO PSYCHIATRY'S FUTURE AT THE APA ANNUAL MEETING

Have you ever wondered about the decision-making process used to determine which studies are published by The American Journal of Psychiatry?

At APA's 2010 annual meeting in New Orleans, you'll get some insight into the answer in a symposium led by AJP Editor Robert Freedman, M.D. He will use the upcoming June issue to explain how submission decisions are made as he highlights important research reported in that issue to be released the following week. Authors of papers that will be appearing in the June issue will also be on hand to present overviews of their findings.

Be a part of this exciting event in New Orleans!

Brief companion exams are created for three of the most influential articles from each issue. By reading the articles and completing the online exams, you can test your knowledge and earn up to 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] per article. Correct answers are highlighted for your reference upon completion of the course; there is no minimum threshold score necessary for the credit. A link from the question to the correct answer in context will also be highlighted in the associated article, thus extending the learning experience.

CME credit is only provided online, and a subscription to the AJP CME program is required. From the moment you subscribe to the AJP CME program, you will be able to select from 72 courses from among 40 possible subject areas. You'll also be able to access the next 33 courses as they become available. For more information and pricing, please go to <http://cme.psychiatryonline.org/misc/aboutajpcme.shtml>

This activity is sponsored by the American Psychiatric Association. The American Psychiatric Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The American Psychiatric Association designates each educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Fulfill your CME requirement while staying current on the latest advances in psychiatry.
