Pocket Guide to Addiction Assessment and Treatment

Edited by Petros Levounis, M.D., M.A.,
Erin Zerbo, M.D., and Rashi Aggarwal, M.D.

The Pocket Guide to Addiction Assessment and Treatment is designed specifically to aid a wide range of clinicians, regardless of their training in addiction, to more confidently assess and treat this patient population. With an accessible, easily referenced format, this book serves as a go-to resource for general psychiatrists other practitioners involved in the addiction treatment field. And because all of the diagnostic discussions are DSM-5®-based, readers can be confident that they're getting the most relevant and up-to-date guidance on the topic.

NYU Lutheran Family Health Center (NYU-LFHC), the FQHC outpatient component of the NYU Lutheran Psychiatry Service, is actively recruiting for multiple openings within our Behavioral Health Service Line. NYU-LFHC offers evidence based individualized treatment services for individuals managing mental health disorders, struggling with chemical dependency problems and/or coping with health issues associated with HIV/AIDS. Services are provided by multidisciplinary, multilingual, culturally competent treatment teams composed of physicians, nurses, psychologists, social workers and addiction counselors.

Recruitment is ongoing for the following openings:

1. Network Behavioral Health Medical Director. Strong background/ interest in community mental health, provides overall psychiatric leadership for all ambulatory behavioral health services. Including supervision and direction of the delivery of clinical services by all licensed and credentialed behavioral health providers, any health professions students and trainees assigned.
2. Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist: Will serve as Associate Medical Director and be responsible for evaluation of patients, diagnosis of illness, overall treatment planning, implementation and follow-up of treatment, and disposition of psychiatric patients. Participates in development of clinical programs and supervision of clinical staff participating in such programs.
3. Adult Psychiatrists (3 positions): Responsible for evaluation of patients, diagnosis of illness, overall treatment planning, implementation and follow-up of treatment, and disposition of psychiatric patients, in the outpatient setting. Specialization in addiction treatment is preferred for one of the open positions.
