

Supplemental Figure Caption:

Condition Contrast: Faces>Shapes. Neural areas in which face related activation was greater than shape related activation across subjects [$F(1,28) \geq 7.75, p < 0.05$, corrected]. Both the left and right amygdala were significantly more active for faces blocks than shape blocks.

Supplemental Figure 1.

