

Implementation of MISSION–Criminal Justice in a Treatment Court: Preliminary Outcomes

Among Individuals With Co-occurring Disorders

Baseline data of 97 justice-involved adults enrolled in a mental health court and MISSION-CJ^a

Baseline characteristic	n	%	M	SD	Median	Range
Male	78	80.41
Female	19	19.59
Age (years)			34.18	10.05	33.00	19–60
Hispanic/Latino	48	49.48
Non-Hispanic/Latino	49	50.52
African American	33	36.67
Native American	1	1.11
Caucasian	48	53.33
Two or more races	8	8.89
Lifetime arrests			12.02	11.78	8.00	1–60
Lifetime months incarcerated			60.28	81.24	24.50	0–456
Age of first arrest (years)			17.60	6.57	16.00	8–49
Experienced serious depression for a significant period of lifetime	84	91.30
Experienced serious anxiety for a significant period of lifetime	83	91.21
Experienced trouble understanding, concentrating, or remembering for a significant period of lifetime	64	69.57
Experienced at least one traumatic event	65	67.71
Lifetime years of illegal drug use			13.94	8.63	11.00	0–40

^aMaintaining Independence and Sobriety through Systems Integration, Outreach, and Networking–Criminal Justice.

Online Supplement