EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

FOCUS, the APA continuing medical education journal, is designed as a personal study resource to help practicing psychiatrists keep abreast of significant advances in the field, with particular attention to clinical practice.

Participants review current knowledge, recognize gaps in learning, and increase their understanding of an important topic in the field of psychiatry.

Participants prepare for an annual self-assessment designed to aid the physician in addressing areas where more study is needed to enhance management of patients.

TO EARN CME CREDIT

Each issue, prepared by distinguished faculty who are recognized leaders in their fields, incorporates a CME component. To earn CME credit for FOCUS, subscribers should read through the material presented in each issue. After reading the material, complete the CME Quiz and submit the evaluation and study hours to APA; or complete the Quiz and evaluation online at focus.psychiatryonline.org.

ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION

The American Psychiatric Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The APA designates this educational activity for a maximum of 5 AMA PRA Category 1 credits<sup>TM</sup>. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Mission Statement
Lifelong Learning in Psychiatry

An evolving series of educational initiatives developed by the American Psychiatric Association to meet the changing needs of psychiatrists for the 21st century.

FOCUS

The APA continuing education journal is designed for practicing psychiatrists to keep abreast of significant advances in the field, while developing self-directed lifelong learning skills. The goal of FOCUS is the lively interactive dissemination of up-to-date information for practicing psychiatrists, facilitating lifelong study skills and critical self-assessment in order to improve patient care.

The American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology has reviewed FOCUS: The Journal of Lifelong Learning in Psychiatry and the FOCUS Self-Assessment Examination and has approved this program as part of a comprehensive lifelong learning and self-assessment program, which is mandated by the American Board of Medical Specialties as a necessary component of maintenance of certification.

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

The Focus Self Assessment program is accredited for up to 20 hours of continuing professional development per year under Section 3 of the Maintenance of Certification program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.
