Psychiatric Services in Advance

Latest research reports!

Medicaid Coverage Critical for by Children With Autism

A study of services used by more than 24,000 Medicaid-enrolled children with psychiatric disorders in Philadelphia highlights the importance of Medicaid coverage for children with autism spectrum disorder, who accounted for the highest per-child expenditures.

Reoffending Among Inmates Who Received Prison Services

Roughly 46% of state prison inmates who received mental health services before their release were reincarcerated within 24 months. For reasons that are unclear, inmates with the most serious offenses and longest sentences were least likely to be rearrested.
